PRESENTATION

Pastor to Presenter: "Who gives this woman to be married to this man?"

Presenter: "I do."

Pastor to Guests: You may be seated?

WELCOME

Pastor to Gathering: "Dear friends and family, with great affection for _____ and _____, we have gathered together to witness and bless their union in marriage. To this sacred moment they bring the fullness of their hearts as both a treasure and a gift from God to share with one another.

They bring the dreams which bind them together in an eternal commitment. They bring their gifts and talents, their unique personalities and spirit, all of which God will unite as one as they build their life together. We rejoice with them in thankfulness to the Lord for creating this union of hearts, built on friendship, respect, and love.

OPENING PRAYER

Pastor to Gathering: (Please Stand) "Let's bow our heads. Join us as we pray. Our Father, love has been your richest and greatest gift to the world through your son Jesus Christ. Love between a man and a woman which matures into marriage is one of your most beautiful types of love. Today we celebrate this love. Lord, may your blessing be on this wedding service. Protect, guide and bless _____ and _____ in their marriage. Surround them and us with your love now and always, and let us all say Amen."

ADDRESS

Pastor to Gathering: “The key to love is inside us all – it takes time and patience to unlock all the ingredients that will take you to its threshold. It is the continual learning process that demands a lot of work . . . but the rewards are more than worth the effort – and that is the key to love. This is now your love, and our Blessings are upon you today. And now, in the presence of these guests and before God, we join this loving couple in Holy Marriage. (Bride hands off bouquet)

CHARGE

Pastor to Groom (ask couple to hold hands): “ _____, do you take _____ to be your wife, to live together in holy matrimony? To love, honor, and cherish her, to keep her in sickness and in health, for as long as you both shall live?”

Groom: “I Do.”

Pastor to Bride: “ _____, do you take _____ to be your husband, to live together in holy matrimony? To love, honor, and cherish him, to keep him in sickness and in health, for as long as you both shall live?”

Bride: “I Do.”

VOWS PERSONAL

Pastor to Guests: "The Bride and Groom have written personal vows to one another."

Groom: _____, I never would have thought thirteen years ago when I met you, that I would be standing here, in front of all of these people. The family and friends that we have built together. I never thought that I would be the lucky one to call you mine, and have you by my side, forever to come. But here we are! You have truly made me the happiest person on this Earth. You prove that to me day in and day out. From the coffee being made every morning, to the kiss goodnight before bed every day. We have made so many great memories in the four years that we've been together, and it's crazy to think that it's just the beginning! I can't wait for these next chapters in our lives because I know they will be better than anything that we've experienced yet. I promise to take care of you and love you always. And to try to be better about putting a trash bag in after I take it out. I love you with my whole heart. Thank you for being you. You will forever be my beemps, my buiscut, and my love.

Bride: _____, here we are finally, in front of our friends and family and I can say that I have never felt so much love and support as I do now at this very moment. I prayed for this moment my whole life. I prayed to find someone to share this life with and God gave me you. Thank you for being the man that you are, and I will always be grateful for the love and happiness you put into my life. I promise to love you faithfully and unconditionally. Through the best and worst obstacles that get thrown at us, I promise to be there every step of the way. This fire has truly tested our faith in each other. And now our love is stronger than it's ever been. I'm so thankful for our lives and I know things will look up from here. We don't have a lot right now but with you I have everything that I've ever wanted. Thank you for being my rock and my best friend and here's to the more amazing memories we will make together.

VOWS TRADITIONAL

Pastor to Groom: “ _____, repeat after me:

Groom: I _____, // take you _____ // to be my wife, // to have and to hold // from this day forward, // for better for worse, // for richer for poorer // in sickness and in health // till death do us part. //

Pastor to Bride: “ _____, repeat after me:

Bride: I _____, // take you _____ // to be my husband, // to have and to hold // from this day forward, // for better for worse, // for richer for poorer // in sickness and in health // till death do us part. //

RING CEREMONY

Pastor to Bride and Groom (ask for rings – hold up): “May I have the ring(s)?”

Pastor: “The exchange of wedding rings is a visible symbol of an inward bond which unites two loyal hearts in endless love. It is the seal of the vows you two have just made to one another. It symbolizes living together in unity, love and happiness for the rest of your lives.”

(return the rings to the Bride and the Groom)

Pastor to Groom: “ _____, please place the band on Megan's ring finger and repeat after me:”

Groom: // _____ // with this ring // I thee wed //

Pastor to Bride: “ _____, please place the band on _____'s ring finger and repeat after me:”

Bride: // _____ // with this ring // I thee wed //

Pastor: “May this covenant of two hearts in love be everlasting.”

CLOSING

Pastor: “Treat yourselves and each other with respect, and remind yourselves often of what brought you two together in the first place. Give the highest priority to the tenderness, gentleness, and kindness that your relationship deserves. When frustration, difficulty and fear assail your relationship as they threaten all relationships at one time or another, remember to focus on what is right between you, not only the part which seems wrong. In this way, you can ride out the storms when clouds hide the face of the Son in your lives – remembering that even if you lose sight of the sun for a moment, the Son is still there. And if each of you take responsibility for the quality of your life together, it will be marked by abundance and delight.”

PRONOUNCEMENT

Pastor: “By virtue of the power vested in me by God, and the given authority of the State of California, I hereby proclaim you _____ and _____, to be Husband and Wife.

May God bless you and keep you, and cause His countenance to shine upon you and be gracious to you, and for all the days of your life, May God grant you Peace. In the Name of Jesus Christ ~ Amen.

THE KISS

Pastor to Couple: “_____, you may now kiss your Bride!”
